

Calibration failure under image quality shift: Std VIB assigns high $P(\text{mel})$ to benign lesions on degraded images; QCTS (ours) reduces overconfidence across all degradation types.

High Quality

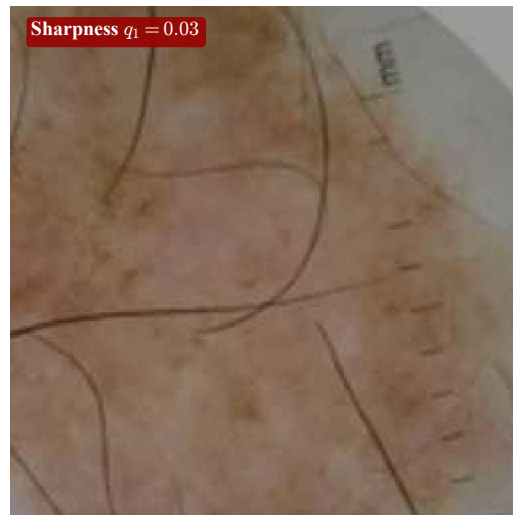

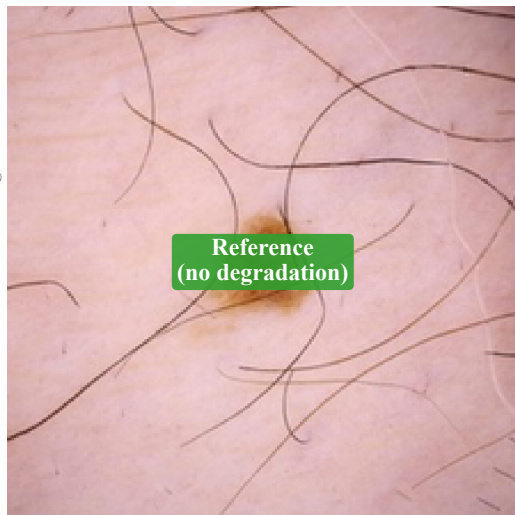

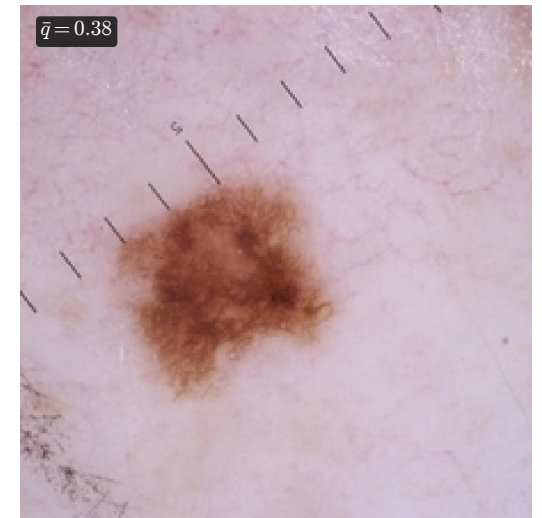

Blur Degradation

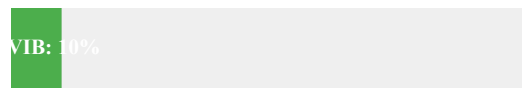

Contrast Loss

Colour Shift

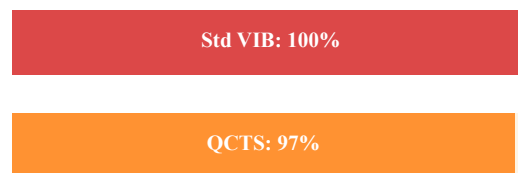

GT: Benign ($P(\text{mel})=0$)

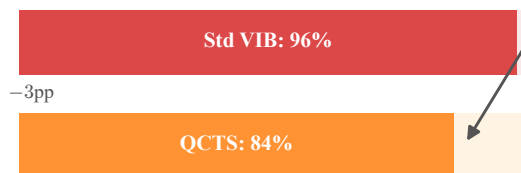

Well-calibrated

GT: Benign ($P(\text{mel})=0$)

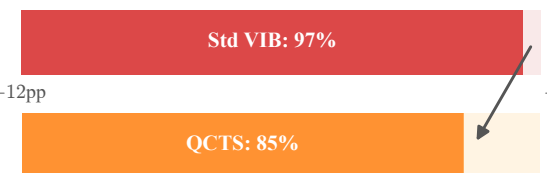

Overconfident (benign!)

GT: Benign ($P(\text{mel})=0$)

Overconfident (benign!)

GT: Benign ($P(\text{mel})=0$)

Overconfident (benign!)